Miss Nanette Wood, daughter of Mr. George Wood of this city, who was one of the graduates this year from Wilberforce (O.) University, has returned home.

The State Auditor has reported to City Attorney Wood that in December, 1896, some one had bought some sort of groceries of somebody's make, made somewhere, from Messrs. R. B. Lovel, C. C. Calhoun, J. W. DeWolf, Ed. Nicholson and John O'Keefe; that unsaid groceries were not pure, and directing him to proceed against the said grocers for violation of the Pure Food Law. The information being about as definite as the size of a piece of chalk, the City Attorney doesn't see how he can issue a warrant that will hold water—much less hold the accused grocers, who, by the way, are among the best in the city.

HIGH-TONED BEGGAR!

Puts His Feet Under the New Central's Mahogany at $2 a Day!

George Collins, Dover, Del.

That's the way, at least, it reads on the register at the New Central.

George is blind, his profession is begging, and it is said he practices his art among Church people, finding them the most susceptible and sympathetic.

Yesterday, however, a certain City Preacher, who had encountered George several years ago, exposed his little scheme and caused his arrest.

When Chief Donovan landed him he put up a fight, but was soon subdued and placed in Jail.

A search revealed a wonderfully constructed watch, one of the kind that strikes the minutes, the quarter, half, three-quarters and whole hours, gives the moon's phases, has flyback second and several other novelties, and which is said to cost anywhere from $700 to $1,000. Besides, he had a K. of P. charm, several dollars in Mexican ten-cent pieces, a few dollars in Uncle Sam's currency and coin and two or three railway tickets.

Officer Harry Ort will take the watch to Cincinnati tomorrow, as one of that build was lost there some years ago.

George will this afternoon have a chance to explain his mode of doing business, and will no doubt be able to satisfy Judge Wadsworth that he can put up at first-class hotels and still make begging pay.

THE ELKS WILL MAKE IT GO

Come to Maysville September 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th.

YOU'LL SURELY HAVE A GOOD TIME!

The Soliciting Committee, Messrs. J. W. Fitzgerald, M. C. Russell, Thomas R. Plister, Charles A. Walthers, William N. Stockett and Thomas A. Davis, will meet at M. C. Russell & Son's at 1:30 this afternoon to begin a canvass for subscriptions to the Premium List.

Our merchants should remember that this fair will be managed for their benefit, and it is expected to draw the largest crowd ever in attendance on a like occasion in this city.

If each will do his part, there can be no such thing as failure.

WHEN RETURN

Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect medicine only when needed. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Fig manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.
